

ENRICH YOUR HONORS PATHWAYS STUDIES

GLOBAL SCHOLARS PATHWAY

Take your interest in business worldwide and learn how to thrive in a global workforce, increase your intercultural competence, and apply business principles in different cultures. As part of this pathway, you will complete a minor in international business and experience a semester abroad, as well as many co-curricular opportunities to enhance your global leadership potential.

FRESHMAN	FALL
	B&E 150: Personal Leadership Development B&E 120: Leadership in the Global Marketplace HON 140: Knowledge and Society ¹ CIS 112 or WRD 112: Accelerated Composition & Communication II Honor Seminar ²
	SPRING
	B&E 250: Professional Exploration & Career Management ACC 200: Introduction to Accounting for Decision Makers ECO 201: Principles of Economics I
SOPHOMORE	FALL
	B&E 240: Inter-Cultural Business Communication ACC 201: Financial Accounting ECO 202: Principles of Economics II
	SPRING
	B&E 327: Larger World Issues in Business
SENIOR	FALL
	MGT 499: Strategic Management ³

1. The honors curriculum requires pathway students to complete honors coursework in UK Core Inquiry.
2. Courses that fulfill the lower level honors seminar requirement include HON 151: Honors Humanities, HON 152: Honors STEM, HON 251: Honors Social Sciences, or HON 252: Honors Arts and Creativity.
3. All students are required to complete an honors capstone or thesis in their senior year.

Global Scholars are required to complete an international experience of 6 weeks to fulfill program and Honors Experience requirements.